FIGHTING INFLATION

You won't have to pay a lot for a little work you can easily do yourself if you buy whole chickens instead of chicken parts, which are frequently more expensive per pound.

* * *

You won't have to pay for aprons if you make them yourself from the backs and tails of men's worn-out shirts.

* * *

You won't have to pay extra for tires, brakes, and gasoline, if you avoid rushing up to red lights and stop signs when driving.

* * *

You won't have to pay for receiving mail if, according to the National Association of Letter Carriers, concerned legislators succeed in getting the government to subsidize the Post Office, the way it does universities.

* * *

You won't have to pay for distilled water for your steam iron if you catch rainwater in a clean container.

* * *

You won't have to pay for too many electrical equipment failures if you oil the equipment once a month.
